

April 28, 2006

For More Information:

Heather McCune, Director of Marketing

949-553-9100 ext. 245

hmccune@bassenianlagoni.com

Bassenian Lagoni Architects' Lee Rogaliner Honored as HomeAid Orange County 2006 Volunteer of the Year

In recognition of the thousands of hours he has donated to Home Aid Orange County to aid transitionally homeless men, women and children, the organization honored Bassenian Lagoni Architects' CFO Less Rogaliner as its outstanding volunteer. Presented at the organization's 8th annual Rainbow of Hope Ball,

In describing Lee's contribution to the organization, presenters noted the many ways he has furthered the mission of HomeAid:

- Lee was one of the first supporters of HomeAid Orange County, joining the organization shortly was established by the Building Industry Association in 1989.
- Lee served as the first co-chair of Project Playhouse, a major fundraiser that celebrates its 15th anniversary this year.
- In addition to support of HomeAid Orange County, Lee was involved in the organization's national expansion. He is the only individual to ever serve on both the local and the national board of directors.
- At every fundraiser and all the shelter events, Lee makes a huge effort to be present and support each program.

At Bassenian Lagoni Architects, the commitment to HomeAid runs deep. The firm was similarly honored as the Rainbow of Hope Consultant of the Year in 2002.

About Bassenian Lagoni Architects

Bassenian Lagoni Architects is an architecture and land planning firm specializing in the design of sought-after places to live, work and play. With a staff of over 140 people in its Newport Beach office, the firm aims to lead the field of design as we work in partnership with our builder and developer clients to create communities that appeal not only to future users, but to builders seeking a competitive edge.

About HomeAid Orange County

HomeAid Orange County, the founding chapter of HomeAid America, was established by the leadership of the Orange County Chapter of the Building Industry Association of Southern California in 1989. Charged with the mission of building and renovating shelters for homeless Orange County men, women and children, HomeAid serves women in crisis pregnancy; abused children; victims of domestic violence; homeless adults living with HIV/AIDS; the mentally challenged; homeless youth; and those families and individuals who find themselves homeless as a result of job loss or catastrophic illness. To date, HomeAid has completed 40 shelter developments with three in various stages of planning and construction.